

Jaiden Espino – Rowan University, majors in Psychology

Giving back to his community is something that was planted in him from a very young age, seeing his parents serve the community as he grew up.

He has served at various organizations as a volunteer – Cathedral Kitchen, Kroc Center along with other community outreach organizations.